

Quaker.scot Workspace

This year SESAM and Quakers in Scotland are moving to new online services using the quaker.scot domain name. We have use of a Google Workspace for Nonprofits account which allows copious storage and centralised administration. This means we can move away from the plethora of individual GMail and Dropbox accounts we have been using until now. These can be hard to recover when role-holders move on and are liable to run out of, and charge for, storage space.

So we can now offer quaker.scot accounts for any role holder in SESAM and Quakers in Scotland. These give an e-mail address which you can use through the GMail web interface, from your local e-mail app or just to forward to another e-mail address. They also give Google Drive for storage which similarly can be used through the web interface or syncing to your computer's disk. You can use Google Docs office apps which are web only (or keep with local office apps if you prefer). And there's a dozen other features such as Google Meet for video calls, Tasks for a ToDo list, a calendar and of course the AI assistant if you ever want to talk to a computer.

Some of the e-mail addresses we have set up now include:

workspace-admins@quaker.scot: quaker.scot administrators, Jonathan Riddell and David Sterratt, contact us if you want an account.

se-treasurer@quaker.scot: SESAM Treasurer, Jonathan Riddell se-assistant-treasurer@quaker.scot: SESAM Assistant Treasurer for LMs, Chris Jardine se-clerk@quaker.scot: SESAM Clerk, Sara Davies se-assistant-clerk@quaker.scot: SESAM Assistant Clerk, Jacqueline Noltingk se-trustees-clerk@quaker.scot: SESAM Clerk to Trustees, Martin Ward

A couple of local meetings have started using them central-edinburgh-treasurer@quaker.scot: Central Edinburgh Treasurer, Catriona Dickson falkirk-polmont-clerk@quaker.scot: Falkirk and Polmont Clerk

The Edinburgh Quaker Meeting House continues to use equaker.org.uk and can be got at office@equaker.org.uk and managers@equaker.org.uk

At Quakers in Scotland we have admin@quaker.scot: QiS Administrator, Jane Booth clerk@quaker.scot: QiS Clerks, Adwoa Burnley & Pleasaunce Perry treasurer@quaker.scot: QiS Treasurer, Kathryn Gulliver contributions@quaker.scot: QiS Contributions, Bronwen Currie

For the last 20 years Jonathan has hosted mailing lists for various groups ranging including Central Edinburgh, BYM committees and Finland Kveekarit. They use the obscure domain name lists.quaker.eu.org. These will now be moving to quaker.scot too. Should you want an announcement list for your meeting or to discuss a listing for your committee, let us know.
